CTSU EMR Template Initiative

- Assist sites in configuring EMR systems for chemo ordering.
- Provide protocol elements most relevant to EMR end user
- Goal: decrease protocol start up time.
- Target audience: site pharmacists, investigators, RNs, EMR IT staff and QA personnel.
- Does not serve as a substitute for the protocol.

The screenshot displays the Alliance for Clinical Trials in Oncology website. The top navigation bar includes links for home, protocols, committees, training & resources, and member services. The user is logged in as Michael Kelly. The main content area is titled "A021502" and shows a breadcrumb trail: Home > Protocol Listing > GI > Supplemental Materials. A list of supplemental materials is provided, with three items highlighted in yellow: "A021502 EMR Cover Letter - 10/01/2017" and "A021502 EMR Template - 10/01/2017". Other materials include "A021502 Activation Webinar Slides - 10/15/2017", "A021502 Specimen Submission Form for MMR Assay - 09/12/2017", and "A021502 Activation Slides - 09/12/2017". A sidebar on the left lists "A021502", "All Documents", "Updates and Action Letters", and "Funding Sheet".
